

Elvis Meets The Beatles

Elvis meets The Beatles. HOW did John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison and Ringo Starr ever get to America in the first place? How did Elvis Presley, a poor boy from the Tennessee backwoods, arrive in Hollywood? This book is a rare focus on the lives and careers of five of the most famous entertainers ever. It converges on the night the greatest summit in rock n roll history took place and no one is better equipped to tell the story of that night than Chris Hutchins for not only was he the only writer there, he set the meeting up! When they first met in a Hamburg night club in 1962 John Lennon asked Hutchins if he ever thought hed be able to meet the man they called the King. The writer from the NME said he would try and arrange it one day . . . That day came in August 1965 when Hutchins after cultivating a friendship with Presleys legendary manager Colonel Tom Parker and by now on tour with the Beatles took the group to Elviss home for a party. Collaborating with fellow author Peter Thompson, Hutchins has written this detailed and uncompromisingly frank account of what happened that night and the strange events that followed. Its packed with rock n roll stories.
