

Deaths Savage Passion (The Patience McKenna Mysteries)

McKenna investigates the first casualty in a New York literary war. The romance boom has ended, and the women who made fortunes writing bodice-rippers are now scribbling mysteries instead. When the genres true authors fight back, a battle breaks out in every high-class gin joint in Manhattan. It is take-no-prisoners fighting, and Patience McKenna is caught in the middle. This ex-romance author has just turned to true crime writing when Sarah English comes to visit. A would-be romance writer from the Great Plains, English is dowdy, wide-eyed, and naive but she is about to toughen up. When a fading romance writer gets pushed in front of a subway train, English is among the suspects. To prove her new friend innocent, McKenna will need the skills gleaned in both her literary genres.
